

Connection.Points. Intertwined and interconnected Euro.Cultural.Connect. Summer Symposium 2025

Tuesday, 15th – Friday, 18th July 2025

Hieronimus-Wolf-Saal, Annahof Augsburg

PROGRAMME

Tuesday, 15th July 2025

09:00 – 09:30: Words of Welcome

09:30 – 10:30: Prof. Dr. Reine Meylaerts (KU Leuven): How does Complexity Theory shape our understanding of complex social, cultural, and historical phenomena?

10:45 – 12:00: Workshop with Prof. Dr. Reine Meylaerts (KU Leuven)

13:30 – 14:10: Dr. Aoife McNerney (Mary-Immaculate-College Limerick): Spatial Connections: Hannah Arendt and Shona Illingworth on our right to space

14:10 – 14:50: Federica Barboni (University of Verona): Beyond the influence: intertextuality and cultural transfer as a rhizomatic system

15:10 – 15:50: Dr. Anna Berger (University of Augsburg): Beyond Disinformation: Journalistic Writing and Critical Media Education in the EFL classroom

15:50 – 16:30: Dr. Chrysi Kyrtasou (Mary-Immaculate-College Limerick): Routes between sound and image: mobilising encounters and mapping students' mobilities in the intercultural class

16:45 – 17:25: Giuseppe Pantano / Amalia Rizzo (University of Lorraine / Rome): Rhizomatic Connections: An Intermedial Analysis of The Willow Song and Circle Singing as Pedagogical Responses to Postmodern Social Challenges

17:25 – 18:05: Diana-Maria Serban (University of Bucarest): Travel, Identity and Alterity in German – Speaking Literature in the 19th and 20th Century: Adelbert von Chamisso and Franz Kafka

Wednesday, 16th July 2025

09:00 – 10:00: Prof. Dr. Burcu Dogramaci (Ludwig-Maximilians- University Munich): Art of Migration: Dis:connected Histories and Entangled Practices

10:15 – 11:30: Workshop with Prof. Dr. Burcu Dogramaci (Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich)

11:45 – 12:25: David Oshige Adams (University of Santiago de Compostela): "Migration, transnational (dis)connections and the pursuit of "well-beings": Peruvians in Galicia, Spain

12:25 – 13:05: Madalina Leonte (University of Bucarest): Space and Places in the Work of Anna Seghers

14:00 – 14:40: Hanna Maria Rompf (Mary-Immaculate-College Limerick): Performing a Cultural Triad: Authorship, Heritage, and Self – Staging in Autofictional Works of Wladimir Kaminer, Dmitrij Kapitelman and Kat Kaufmann

14:40 – 15:20: Dr. Nina Niedermeier (University of Augsburg): Fortuna, Providentia and Salvation History – the Book of Esther as a Jewish – Christian Image Subject in Early Modern Venice

16:30 – 18:30: City tour: Entangled Water History, Augsburg UNESCO World Heritage

Thursday, 17th July 2025

09.30 – 10.30: Dr. Hanne De Jaegher (University of Sussex): Linguistic bodies moving through complex times

10.45 – 12.00: Workshop with Dr. Hanne De Jaegher (University of Sussex)

13.30 – 14.10: Dr. Juliane Egerer (University of Augsburg): Weaving the Planetary Threads of a Yet-to-Be Discipline: Trans-Indigenous Literary and Cultural Studies as a Transformative Force in (German) Academia

14.10 – 14.50: Anthony Masquelier (University of Lorraine): Phenomenology of Life and Language: emergence of the concept of "meta-referentiality"

15.20 – 16.00: Dr. Ivo Frankenreiter (Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich): Process Ontology and the Transformation Ethics of an interrelated Cosmos

16.00 – 16.40: Roque Sanfiz Arias (University of Santiago de Compostela): Models of innovation in atlantic agriculture: 1880 – 1980

16.40 – 17.20: David Fontán Bestilleiro (University of Santiago de Compostela): Commons, environmental conflicts and sustainability in the long term (17th – 20th centuries). An approach from the Galician context

Friday, 18th July 2025

09:30 – 10:30: Prof. Dr. Reinhard Hennig (Agder University): Reading Oil: Ecocritical and Environmental Humanities Approaches to Modern Petroculture

10:45 – 12:00: Workshop with Prof. Dr. Reinhard Hennig (Agder University)

12:45 – 14:00: Summarising discussion: interconnected research, interdisciplinary working methods and intertwined global perspectives as the way forward? European Perspectives

Organisation:

Prof. Bettina Bannasch and Dr. Theresia Dingelmaier, Graduate School for Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Augsburg

Participating Universities:

University of Augsburg
University of Bucarest
University of Limerick (Mary-Immaculate-College Limerick)
University of Lorraine, University of Santiago de Compostela
University of Verona

Universität Augsburg
Graduiertenschule für Geistes-und Sozialwissenschaften