American Studies

A Very Short Introduction

American Studies at Uni Augsburg

A Very Short Introduction

- Focuses on the United States and Canada as complex, culturally diverse, multilingual spaces
- Analyses how these spaces came into being and keep changing in the context of transnational migration and processes of transculturation
- Looks at these spaces from an interdisciplinary perspective; attention is given to literary and other cultural output, but also to historical and political processes
- Looks at a range of materials: Literature, film, TV series, photography as well as political theory and philosophy
- Overlaps with English Studies and Postcolonial Studies

Syllabus

NOTE: Where it is feasible, a syllabus (headnote) will be released, as is being done in connection with this case, at the time the opinion is issued. The syllabus constitutes no part of the opinion of the Court but has been prepared by the Reporter of Decisions for the convenience of the reader. SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Syllabus

TRUMP v. UNITED STATES

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 23–939. Argued April 25, 2024—Decided July 1, 2024

A federal grand jury indicted former President Donald J. Trump on four counts for conduct that occurred during his Presidency following the November 2020 election. The indictment alleged that after losing that election, Trump conspired to overturn it by spreading knowingly false claims of election fraud to obstruct the collecting, counting, and certifying of the election results. Trump moved to dismiss the indictment based on Presidential immunity, arguing that a President has absolute immunity from criminal prosecution for actions performed within the outer perimeter of his official responsibilities, and that the indictment's allegations fell within the core of his official duties. The District Court denied Trump's motion to dismiss, holding that former Presidents do not possess federal criminal immunity for any acts. The D. C. Circuit affirmed. Both the District Court and the D. C. Circuit declined to decide whether the indicted conduct involved official acts.

Held: Under our constitutional structure of separated powers, the nature of Presidential power entitles a former President to absolute immunity from criminal prosecution for actions within his conclusive and preclusive constitutional authority. And he is entitled to at least presumptive immunity from prosecution for all his official acts. There is no immunity for unofficial acts. Pp. 5–43.

(a) This case is the first criminal prosecution in our Nation's history of a former President for actions taken during his Presidency. Determining whether and under what circumstances such a prosecution may proceed requires careful assessment of the scope of Presidential power under the Constitution. The nature of that power requires that a former President have some immunity from criminal prosecution for official acts during his tenure in office. At least with respect to the

ANGLISTEN THEATER

What is the AnglistenTheater about?

We are an English language theatre group at the University of Augsburg. Most of us are students or members of staff, but quite a few of us come from outside the Uni. − We welcome people from all parts of the world.

We have produced English language plays since 1981, and we have co-operated with other theatre groups outside the Uni (bluespots productions Augsburg; theatre fragile Berlin; theter Augsburg), and we participated in the 2026 Brechtfestival.

You can join us as an actor, or as a member of our production and backstage team.

Intensive Rehearsal Week Sion/Valais, CH, Easter 2026

Our summer production July 2026

Our winter 2026-27 production; plans for 2027

Winter 2026-27: Three weeks ago, we began to rehearse Lucy Kirkwood's version of Beauty and the Beast, to be staged 4 times between December 7 and 17 in Hörsaal II.

If you would like to lend a helping hand with stage management, makeup, or costumes, or join our backstage and front of house team …

… get in touch with us directly after this event.

2027: So far, we have no definite plans yet. However, we might do a small production involving 3-4 actors in February or March, perhaps at the City Club in town, and a summer production with a bigger cast in June.

If you would like to be an actor in the 2027 productions, just keep an eye on our website https://uni-a.de/to/anglistentheater for our preparatory meeting, or get in touch with us directly after this event.

If you would like to lend a helping hand with stage management, makeup, stage design, sound design or costumes, or join our backstage and front of house team …

The Ideal First Year of Your Studies

Please note!

- Amount of work for each course
- Don’t choose two or more courses for one time slot!
  - Attention: The General Language Course (SZE-0113) is a three-hour course and takes place twice a week

→ Only sign up for it if you’re sure you can attend both sessions!

  - The same applies to modules that consist of two parts, e.g. a lecture and an exercise

→ Make sure you can attend both courses!

→ Rule of Thumb: Your workload should add up to approx. 30 CP (LP) (not SWS (weekly hours)!) per semester including courses from your major and minor and subject combination to finish your program comfortably within the standard period of study

→ In total, you have to visit courses in your major, minor, and additional mandatory electives

Course Registration: Digicampus

When?

- → Usually within the registration period during the semester break
- → But: first semesters can register
  - Language Center: until 9 Oct., 16:30/4:30 pm
    For courses with more than one group → Select all that fit your schedule to increase your chances of securing a spot!
  - Introduction Lectures: until 16 Oct., 12 pm
  - Supplementary Courses: until 16 Oct., 12 pm
- → If you want to take courses other than those in the base modules, write an email to the following address: fachsprecher.anglistik@philhist.uni-augsburg.de
- → For questions regarding the language center courses, please contact Dr. Christine Haunz

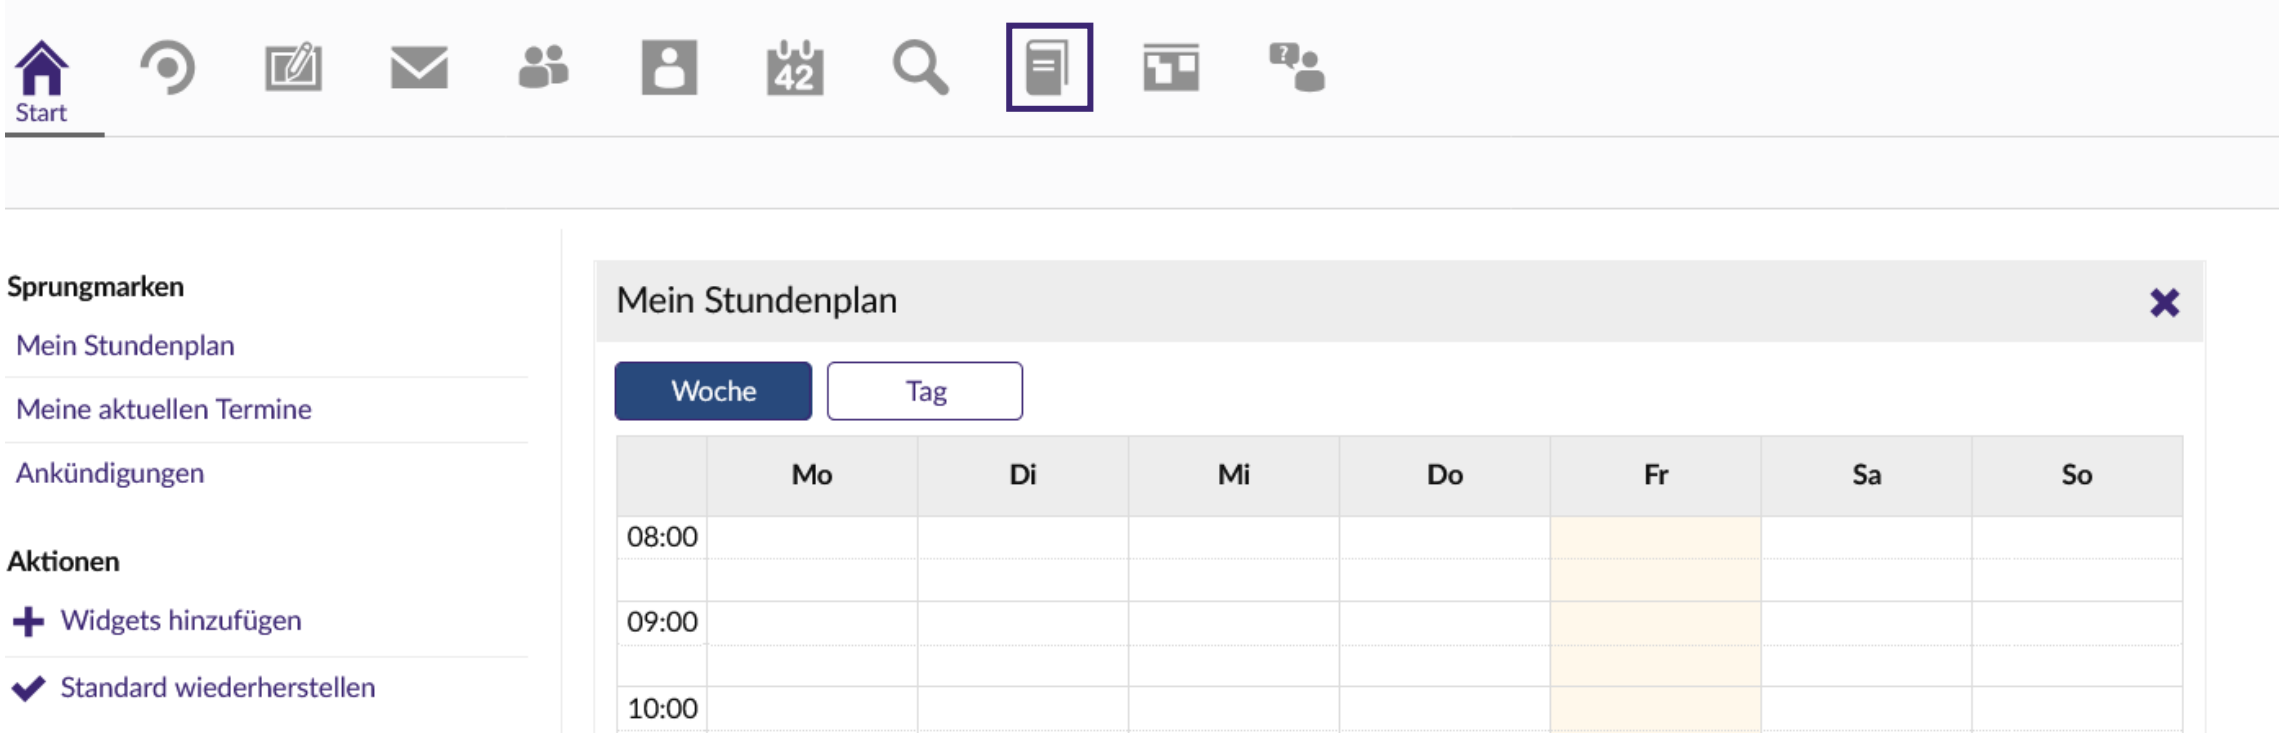

How?

- → Either search for the course or use the module catalogue on Digicampus, open the course and scroll to the bottom to register; the spots for the language center courses will be distributed “randomly” via the Digicampus algorithm after the registration period is up, you can register directly for the introduction lectures
