

AUGSBURG CHRISTMAS MARKETS

December 6, 2019

The Christmas market in Augsburg is one of Germany's oldest, having originated as early as the 15th century. Well-known and unique is the Angel Performance of the Augsburg "Christkindlesmarkt", which was created in 1977. Twenty-four angels appear on the beautiful facade of the City Hall and transform the building into a huge Advent calendar.

PROGRAM DETAILS

We would like to celebrate pre-Christmas season with you during an evening at the Christmas markets in the center of Augsburg. We will meet at 4:30pm and visit the hidden Weihnachtsinsel ("Christmas Island") at the Zeughaus, an alternative Christmas market where high-quality arts and crafts from local artists are displayed. At 6pm, we will then head over to the "Rathausplatz" to see the "Engelesspiel" (Angel Performance) and enjoy the big Christmas market there. To finish off our get-together and warm up again, we will then have dinner at the Picnic restaurant at 6:45pm.
